MEMORANDUM RULING

Before the Court is a Motion for Summary Judgment filed on behalf of Defendant, Libbey Glass, Inc. ("Libbey"). [Doc. # 28]. Plaintiffs, George and Shiquanda Knuckles (collectively "the Knuckles"), have not filed an opposition to the motion for summary judgment. For the reasons assigned below, the Motion for Summary Judgment [Doc. # 28] is GRANTED. Plaintiffs' claims against Libbey are DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE.

SUMMARY JUDGMENT STANDARD

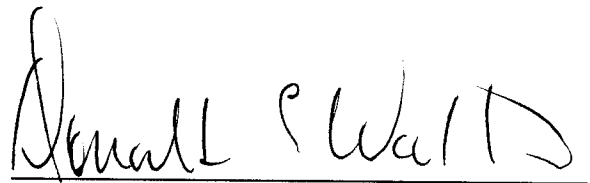

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 56(a) directs that a court "shall grant summary judgment if the movant shows that there is no genuine dispute as to any material fact and the movant is entitled to judgment as a matter of law."¹ A fact is "material" if it may affect the outcome of the suit under governing law. Anderson v. Liberty Lobby, Inc., 477 U.S. 242, 248 (1986). A dispute is "genuine" if there is sufficient evidence so intentional action. There is no evidence in the record to suggest a genuine dispute exists as to whether Libbey acted intentionally.

CONCLUSION

Because the Knuckles have not offered evidence to show a genuine dispute as to a material fact remains, summary judgment in this case is appropriate. Libbey's Motion for Summary Judgment [Doc. # 28] is GRANTED. The Knuckles' claims against Libbey are DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE.
